

Woodward & Lothrop

New York-WASHINGTON-Paris.

Until Further Notice Store Will Open at 8:30 A. M., and Remain Open

February Sale of Rugs

At Greatly Reduced Prices.

HIS is the second week of our February Special Sale of Rugs, and life of the Capital. The Marine Band to-day we speak of Orientals—genuine Orientals, in bright, rich Orchestra, which was stationed in the colorings, and soft mellow tones and designs typical of the small breakfast room, played behind a Love During the Empire-Miss Gordon and Master by a mass of green foliage. Orient. They consist of small lots and one-of-a-kind pieces, in Orient. They consist of small lots and one-of-a-kind pieces, in hall and drawing-room were vases of yellow jonquils, giving an attractive and low jonquils, giving an attractive and masked, and by 10 o'clock there was a motiley throng upon the floor. Here was ity, and every one is a genuine product of the Far East.

Carpet Sizes.

1 Cashmere Rug, size 7x11 feet. $60.00. Was $80.00.

1 Afghan Rug, size 8x11 feet.

$65.00. Was $85.00. 1 Muskabod Rug, size 8.9x10.9 feet. $75.00. Was $100,00. 1 India Rug, size 7.7x10.7 feet.

$95.00. Was $125.00. 1 India Rug, size 8.2x12.1 feet. $115.00. Was $150.00.

1 India Rug, size 9x13.10 feet. $150.00. Was $200.00.

1 India Rug, size 9x12.3 feet. $175.00. Was $225.00. 1 India Rug, size 10x14 feet.

$190.00. Was $250.00. 1 Mahal Rug, size 11x14.6 feet. $225.00. Was $300.00.

Small Sizes. 1 Cabistan Rug.

$35.00. Was $45.00. 1 Bokara Rug. $40.00. Was $60.00.

1 Bokara Rug $45.00. Was $65.00. Small Sizes.

1 Sennah Rug. $50.00. Was $65.00.

1 Kermanshaw Rug. $65.00. Was $90.00.

1 Sarouk Rug. $75.00. Was $100.00.

Small Lots.

One lot of Shirvan Rugs. $12.50 each. Were $17 and $20.

One lot of Shirvan Rugs, $15 each. Were $20 and $22.50.

One lot of Shirvan Rugs.

$17.50 each. Were $22.50 and $25. One lot of Daghestan Rugs.

$20 each. Were $25 and $27.50. One lot of Cabistan and Daghestan

$22.50 each. Were $27.50 and $30. One lot of Mousoul Rugs, $22.50. Were $30.00.

One lot of Kazak Rugs. $25.00 each. Were $35.00. One lot of Kazak Rugs. $30.00 each. Were $40.00.

Special Sale of French Hand-made Curtains.

7E have just received and offer an importer's discontinued patterns Jasper Wilson.

The host be of French Hand-made Curtains and Bed Sets at 1/4 to 1/2 Less Than Regular Prices.

The lots are small, ranging from 2 to 6 pairs of a kind. The de signs are rich, and included are some of the prettiest patterns for the coming season. Irish Point, Renaissance, and Arabian.

Irish Point Curtains, $4.50 Pair. Value, $6.00. Irish Point Curtains, $5.00 Pair. Value, $7.50. Renaissance Curtains, $6.50 Pair. Value, $8.50. Renaissance Curtains, $12.50 Pair. Value, $18.50. Arabian Curtains, $12.00 Pair. Value, $16.50. Arabian Curtains, $16.50 Pair. Value, $25.00.

New Muslin Curtains.

Fresh, crisp goods, just from the cases—the first arrivals for spring of 1907. Some are all white, in plain and dainty designs; some are finished with effective borders, and others are in rich stained glass patterns.

| Mrs. Adamson, with Miss Smith and Mrs. Scott, Senator and Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Adamson, with Miss Stern, contributed the musical programme. Richmond roses with a back-the ball became informal and the Riggs ground of ferns and palms formed the way at the disposal of the guests.

| Mrs. Adamson, with Miss Smith and Mrs. Stern, contributed the musical programme. Richmond roses with a back-the ball became informal and the Riggs ground of ferns and palms formed the way at the disposal of the guests.

| Mrs. Adamson, with Miss Stern, contributed the musical programme. Richmond roses with a back-the ball became informal and the Riggs ground of ferns and palms formed the way at the disposal of the guests.

Ruffled Muslin Curtains, made especially | New Cross-strip Curtains, in a full to our order, including the newest effects range of colors and designs to select in plain and dotted muslins, with full hemstitched ruffles, in a variety of quali-rooms, sitting rooms, libraries, &c.

$1.00, $1.25, $1.50, and $1.75 pair.

Imported Tambour Muslin Curtains, in dainty all-over patterns, dots, and effec-tive border designs. $2.25 to $7.50 pair,

$1.00 to $3.50 pair.

Real Madras Curtains, in floral and stained-glass effects; especially desirable for libraries, sitting rooms, &c

$5 & $6 pair. Values $6.50 & $7.50. New Willow Furniture.

We invite attention to another shipment of Willow Furniture, consisting of Tables, Arm Chairs, Rockers. Reclining Chairs, &c., especially desirable for the boudoir, which are offered at specially low prices. We finish these pieces in any color desired at small cost. Special in Slip Covers.

For the month of February we will make to order Slip Covers (for the average 5-piece parlor suites) of best art ticking or printed camask, allowing 25 yards for the making, and guaranteed, at the Special Price, $11.00 the Suite.

Special in Portieres.

Extra Heavy Rep and Mercerized Por- Full-size Couch Covers, in plain colors, something new; green and red. $5.00 pair. Values, $6.50 to $8.50. $3.75 each. Value, $5.00.

Special in Couch Covers.

tieres, trimmed with cord and lace edge; mixed oriental effects and Bagdad stripes;

Special Sale of Brass Bedsteads.

WE are showing a handsome line of Brass Bedsteads, in all sizes, ranging in price from $19.75 to $140.00. Also a very comprehensive assortment of White and Black Enameled Bedsteads, in plain and brass-trimmed styles. Prices range from $5.00 to $25.00. Special attention is called to the following special values in one-of-a-kind Brass Bedsteads, in 1907 patterns. Some have continuous posts; all are massive and heavy. 1 41/2-ft. Brass Bedstead, colonial style, with high posts, $75.00. Was $95.00. 1 41/2-ft. Brass Bedstead, with continuous posts; very massive, $47.50. Was $55.00. 1 41/2-ft Brass Bedstead, very rich design. $35.00. Was $50.00.

1 41/2-ft. Brass Bedstead, very massive. $32.50. Was $40.00. 1 4½-ft. Brass Bedstead, very graceful $30.00. Was $40.00. 1 4½-ft, Brass Bedstead, rich design. $27.50. Was $40.00. Also 1 41/2-ft. Nickel-finish Bedstead, with heavy posts and fillers.

1107 Penna. Ave.

Miss Perie Anderson, Miss Grace Allen, the Misses Cassels, Miss Hastings, Miss Mildred Lambert, Miss Eleanor Granger, and Miss Elizabeth Clarke.

One of the most successful entertain-Ambassador and Viscountess ments in the history of the winter took place yesterday at the New Willard. where the romance of "Pierrot and Pierrette" and a series of exquisitely arranged tableaux with incidental music was given in aid of the Working Boys DINNER TO CHIEF EXECUTIVE Home, with Mrs. A. C. Barney as direc tor in chief. Associated with Mrs. Barney were: Mrs. Ffoulke, Mrs. James F. Mitchel, Mrs. Weightman, Miss Edith Miller, Mrs. Loring, Mrs. John M. Bid-President and Mrs. Roosevelt Guests of Secretary of Agriculture Wildle, Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Marrow.

Aoki Give Reception.

orsage ornaments.

the prevailing jonguils.

The Minister from Norway and Mme.

Hauge entertained at dinner last evening

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft, of Cincin-

Schubert and Mr. Arthur Goldsborough, also entertained at dinner last evening.

Representative Edward Morrell, of except for large clusters of white lilacs nsertions of Valenciennes lace.

son at the New Willard-Many En-tertainments Last Night to Close

The prologue, written by that rising star, Mr. Phelps Brown, was spoken by Mr. Newton Gulick, in costume, and was followed by living pictures, most of Season-Tableaux for Boys' Home. youthful participants having the helles and beaux of Mrs. Glover's children's shall of ten days ago. The Ambassador from Japan and the programme represented: Viscountess Aoki were hosts at a large re-small breakfast room, played behind a Kingstone.

Wall of palms, while all about the large Love and Folly—The Misses Russell and Miss Chap. No one was allowed to dance unless of point lace over white satin, with the The second number on the prolow bodice ornamented by a number of gramme, "Pierrot and Pierrette," was handsome. Columbia was there, radian diamond stars. She wore a dog collar of written by Mr. Wilbur Underwood and in the folds of the American flag; there pearls and diamonds and very effective given by the following cast:

tea in the large ballroom, with Mrs. Mor-The Count and Countess Hatzfeldt arrived a few weeks ago from Germany to Mrs. Nathanial Simpkins, Mrs. Hinckley, rived a few weeks ago from Germany to and Mrs. James F. Mitchell presiding.

visit the parents of the latter, and are Their assistants, all in the most becoming two-stepped with a swarthy Mexican;

A buffet supper was served throughout Miss Stephanie Trescot, Miss Esther Denny, seemed happy. Mme. Pompadour was the evening, the table being decorated in the prevailing jonquils.

Miss Pansy Bloomer, Miss Margaret System and happy. Mme. Pompadour was the prevailing jonquils. burg; Miss Laura Weils, Miss Eleanor descending to tread a measure with an Slater, Miss Newlands, Miss Brewster, Arab from Tunis, while a Spanish The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were last evening the guests of the Secretary Miss Leutze, Miss Olga Converse, Miss senorita, with lace mantilla wrapped co-of Agriculture, Mr. Wilson, who enter- Williams, Miss Foraker, Miss Crawford, quettishly about her face, cast roguish tained at his annual dinner in the Chief Miss Perkins, Miss Elise Hoban, Miss glances at the throng over the shoulde Florence Conrad, Miss Errol Cuthbert Executive's honor, at the New Willard. Brown, and Miss Jean Crosby. The dinner was served in the Presidential

To meet the President and Mrs. Rooseresident society, who had a very delight- retreats, where Carmen, if she resident society, who had a very delightretreats, where Carmen, if she chose, ful dance in the white and gold ballroom
General and Mrs. James A. Gary, of Baltimore; Representative and Mrs. J. A. T.
Hull, Representative and Mrs. Franklin

Charles H. Campbell, Mrs. Robert Hinck
Tresident society, who had a very delightful dance in the white and gold ballroom last evening. The company was received by Mrs. N. S. Lincoln, Mrs.
Hull, Representative and Mrs. Franklin

Charles H. Campbell, Mrs. Robert Hinck
In a room just off the ballroom a long. Brookes, Representative and Mrs. Walter L. Smith, Representative and Mrs. John F. Richard Harlow, and Mrs. Andrew V. Richard Harlow, and Mrs. Walter Levy Research Richard Harlow, and Mrs. Andrew Y. served to the dancers, and at one end of Lacey, Representative and Mrs. Joseph V. Graff, Representative and Mrs. James R. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Garfield, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pinchot, Mr. and Lincoln and Mr. Orville Eckert. William E. Curtis, Prof. and Mrs. W J McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pat-terson, Miss Shaw, Miss Ridgely, and Mr. The favors, all suggestive of the valen-

r Wilson.
host being a widower, and his showing.
A buffet supper was served at 12 o'clock,

Mrs. Harry C. Woodyard, wife of Rep-

the Russian Ambassador and Baroness Rosen, the Minister from the Netherlands recentative Woodyard, of West Virginia, and Mme, van Swinderen, the military at-entertained at a large tea yesterday afttache of the German Embassy and Mme. ernoon, when the entire lower floor of judges decided to award first prize to the in the history of the city, no great Hebbinghaus, the Third Assistant Secretic the Hotel Bancroft was open to her tary of State and Mrs. Wilson, Rear Adguests. In addition to the usual attemption while the second prize went to reared in this city, should be accorded miral and Mrs. Cowles, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Slater, Mrs. Robert Patterson, pleasant musical programme was intro-Miss Gwynne, M. Centaro, of the Italian duced. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Hughes, also of West Virginia; Mrs. The Secretary of War and Mrs. Taft Howard, and Mrs. Griggs, with Mrs. which he had brought back from his last evening when their rowbridge and Mrs. McCarthy doing sketching trip. were dinner hosts last evening, when their the honors of the tea-room.

Mrs. Adamson, with Miss Smith and guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan, Senator to Mr. Earle H. Amos took place last danced till they got their fill, and some The Secretary of Commerce and Labor evening in the presence of a small com- the more sentimental-hid themselves intertained at dinner last evening, when pany of relatives and very close friends his guests were Gen. and Mrs. George L. at the future home of the young people. Gillespie, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Chad-Rev. Richard P. Williams, D. D., of wick, Lieut, and Mrs. Timmons, Miss Le Bourgeois, Miss Harlan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schafer, of New York; Prince Koudacheff, of the Russian Embassy; Mr.

Rev. Richard P. Williams, D. D., of one had a good time, and Col. Staples, the host, was the life of the party, one the conventional wedding gown of white, with tulle veil, but was the Riggs House has ever given.

Beginning next Wednesday afternoon at the host, was the life of the party, of the largest and most successful that the Riggs House has ever given.

Beginning next Wednesday afternoon at the host, was the life of the party, of the largest and most successful that the Riggs House has ever given. unattended, as also was the bridegroom. Radowitz, of the German Embassy; Mr. An informal reception followed the cere-mony, after which Mr. Amos and his The Secretary of State and Mrs. Root

Pennsylvania, entertained at dinner last evening at his residence, on H street.

Which is the second to take place in the bridegroom's family in the past month, included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper Mrs. Knox, wife of the Senator from Pennsylvania, was the hostess at a large tea yesterday afternoon, when all the official world was invited to meet her young daughter-in-law, Mrs. Reed Kray a bride of two weeks are. The knox, a bride of two weeks ago. The handsome residence was not decorated, Wilkes.

and pink roses. Mrs. Knox and the Mrs. William H. Daw was at home to a guest of honor, who is a handsome blond, welcomed the company in the large number of callers on Monday, Feblibrary, the hostess wearing a beautiful ruary 11. The decorations were red roses. gown of gray panne velvet with trim- carnations, and azaleas. Mrs. Daw reming of Irish lace. The bride wore ceived in a gown of silver brocade, Irish light blue Liberty silk with elaborate lace, and black velvet; Mrs. Dieffenderfer, sertions of Valenciennes lace.

Mrs. Knox had no receiving party, lace and chiffon; Mrs. J. W. Pitcher, either in the drawing-room or the din-ing-room, the very delicious refresh- Miss Marie Parker, in a princesse gown of ments being served by a large corps of white satin moire, presided at the punch bowl. Misses Bodell and Simpson, in gowns of blue and pink radium silk, Miss Maria de Calvo, the attractive served frappe and bouillon.

The first of several attentions announced in honor of Miss India Bell Fleming on her Guzman, Mme. Bolet-Monhgan, Miss approaching marriage to Mr. Corea, Min-Calderon, the Misses Carbo, the three ister from Nicaragua, took place yesterattractive daughters of the Minister day, when Miss Gertrude Fry entertained from Ecuador, and Mme. Carbo, Miss at luncheon in honor of the bride-elect. Mercedes Godoy, the Misses Taylor,

A series of Lenten musicales will be given this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock by Mme. J. Esputa Daly, 1401 H street northwest. Miss Marie McKevitt will assist.

Mrs. Dolph, widow of Senator Dolph, is town, and will stay this month. She is going abroad in the spring to visit her younger daughter, Mrs. Louis Walker Thornton, in London. Mr. Richard Nixon, of Portland, accompanied his mother-inaw East, and both are at the New

Mrs. Frank B. Lord received yesterday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock at the Lenox, assisted by Mrs. A. C. Thorn, Mrs. W. M. Barton, and Mrs. C. T. Raven-

Shaffer's Violets for Valentines.

Annual Masquerade With Colonel Staples as Host.

BRILLIANT COSTUMES SEEN

Many Guests from Out of Town, and Many Queer and Handsome Disguises Adopted-First Prize Awarded to Miss Jess Horner, the Second to Mr. F. Carl Smith.

The annual masked ball of the Riggs Viscountess Aoki were hosts at a large reception last evening, which brought to their new home, on Franklin square, the largest and most interesting company of the week, fully 600 people representing very completely the official and resident life of the Capital. The Marine Band Orchestra, which was stationed in the school of the state of the Capital of the same and the large orchestra, which was stationed in the large orchestra, which was stationed in the large orchestra, which was stationed in the large orchestra which forms the denomination of the respectively. The large orchestra which forms the denomination of the same and decked with American flags, and the large orchestra which forms the denomination of the same and decked with American flags, and the large orchestra which from the denomination of the same and decked with American flags, and the large orchestra which from the decked with American flags, and the large orchestra which from the decked with American flags, and the large orchestra which from the decked with American flags, and the large orchestra which from the decked with American flags. music was concealed from the dancers spring-like atmosphere particularly welcome to all visitors.

The Ambassador and Viscountess welcomed the company in the larger of the two drawing-rooms, to the west of the hall, the hostess wearing a splendid robe of point large over white state with the state of the point large over white state with the state of the larger of the hall, the lostess wearing a splendid robe of point large over white state with the state of the larger of the hall, the lostess wearing a splendid robe of point large over white state with the larger of the hall, the lostess wearing a splendid robe of point large over white state with the larger of the look.

Master Garfield.

Love in Springtime—Miss Margarite Du Bois, Miss Frances Judson, and Master John Hemphill. Love in Summer—Miss Bessie Edwards, Miss Margarite Du Bois, and Wargarite Du Bois, while Pierrot had Mary. Queen of Scots, for a partner. Here was Columbine dancing with a cavalier of the Middle Ages, while Pierrot had Mary. Queen of Scots, for a partner. Here was Columbine dancing with a cavalier of the Middle Ages, while Pierrot had Mary. Queen of Scots, for a partner. Here was Columbine dancing with a cavalier of the Middle Ages, while Pierrot had Mary. Queen of Scots, for a partner. Here was Columbine dancing with a cavalier of the Middle Ages, while Pierrot had Mary. Queen of Scots, for a partner. Here was Columbine dancing with a cavalier of the Middle Ages, while Pierrot had Mary. Queen of Scots, for a partner. Here was Columbine dancing with a cavalier of the Middle Ages, while Pierrot had Mary. Queen of Scots, for a partner. Here was Columbine dancing with a cavalier of the Middle Ages, while Pierrot had Mary. Queen of Scots, for a partner. Here was Columbine dancing with a cavalier of the Middle Ages, while Pierrot had Mary and the Misses and Mary and Mary and the Misses and Mary and

The costumes were rich, varied, and was Gretchen, a male Gretchen with pearls and diamonds and very effective coiffure ornaments in the form of diamond studded wings. She was assisted in receiving by her daughter, the Countess Hatzfeldt a dainty and picturesque young that the coiffure ornaments in the form of diamond studded wings. She was assisted in receiving by her daughter, the Countess Hatzfeldt a dainty and picturesque young the control of th in white, Folly with cap and bells, rough matron distinctly Japanese in type, despite her German blood. The Countess Hatzfeldt were a beautiful gown of red tulie with trimming of gold embroidered lace. Her jewels, which are very handsome, including a tiara of diamonds, with diamond necklace and pearl and diamond corsage ornaments.

Song Mrs. Stilson Hutchins Fancy Dance. Taught by Miss Hawke Marine Band Orchestra and Mr. Santelmann. Seene 1-Home. Seene 2-Pete of Folly.

Seene 3-Patheau—"Claire de la Lune."

Seene 4-Home. Sweet Home.

THE MARRIAGE.

Children of Mrs. Clover's Fancy Dress Ball.

The afternoon closed with a valentine skirt and a mask like a rat, seemed to impersonate the Pied Piper of Hamelin. impersonate the Pied Piper of Hamelin. Dance a Mad Frolic.

The dance went on, and it was a mad rolic! A Scotch lassie in gaudy plaid at present the most entertained young of costumes, either serving tea or seiling valentines, were Miss Katherine Jennings, for the nonce with a graybeard, and of a man clad like a bluejacket of the Inited States navy. The dinner was served in the Freshchetts suite, which was beautifully decorated in white lilacs with pink roses and carna-white lilacs with pink roses and carna-Rauscher's finished the dancing season ples, the host of the ball, was a mad and happy revel, and the fun was fast and furious. Col. O. G. Staples of the ball, was a way of the ball, was a mad and happy revel, and the fun was fast and furious. for some two hundred young people of enough to provide plenty of dim and cozy In a room just off the ballroom a long Bradley, who were the chaperons of the the ballroom a huge punch-bowl helped to affair. The cotillion, which began short-ly after 9 o'clock, was led by Mr. Gould

Always through the throng moved the spirit of a Rough Rider, looking out for tine season, were mainly pretty paper and taken care of, and when the hour for untulle conceits which made an effective masking came it was no surprise to find

The host being a widower, and his daughter, Miss Flora Wilson, absent in Europe, Mrs. Dolliver, wife of the senior Senator from Iowa, the host's State, acted

A buffet supper was served at 12 o clock, with the dance coming to a close at 1. The young people forming the committee of arrangements were Miss Nathalle Linguisted in a procession about the room, parading in front of the judges so that is the first appearance of this artist that the control of the series at the Columbia Theater parading in front of the judges so that vantage Judges Award Prizes.

With such variety of costume it was hard to make a choice, but at last the the room; while the second prize went to After the formality of awarding the gramme is as follows:

The marriage of Miss Linda B. Redding in order; some stayed in the ballroom and away in the Oriental nooks that were provided, and the old, old story was perhaps told again. At any rate, every Among the guests were:

An informal reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. Amos and his bride left for a short wedding trip. On their return they will reside at 67 New York avenue.

The company witnessing this marriage which is the second to take place in the bridegroom's family in the past month.

CREDIT FOR ALL WASHINGTON

Stoves and Ranges at Cut Prices

method we know of-liberal price cutting. As we have all kinds for heating or cooking purposesfor coal, gas, or oil-and as all prices have been reduced, you couldn't help getting a bargain in this department if you tried. If you have an unsatisfactory range, you will find it cheaper to let us put in a good one for you-we guarantee satisfaction. If you find trouble in keeping the house warm, we have heaters of all sizes and styles which you can now buy at reduced prices and pay for in small amounts you will never miss.

817-819-821-823 Seventh St.

DULIN & MARTIN CO.

Grape Fruit Services

TO THE hostess who appreciates the importance of serving things in the daintiest and most approved manner an inspection of our exclusive showing of Grape Fruit Serving Glasses will prove highly interesting.

These glasses are very ingeniously made in two parts, having an inner receptacle for the fruit and an outer one for crushed ice on which the fruit

They are shown in plain crystal as well as various rich patterns of cut and gold decorated glass. The addition of engraved or gold monograms, which we execute to order, contributes greatly to the individuality of these services.

Dulin & Martin Co. Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, & ...

1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St.

E. F. DROOP & SONS CO.

FOR A FINE CECILIAN PIANO-PLAYER

An older model, to be sure, but one that has given and will con-tinue to give satisfaction.

FITS ANY PIANO

DROOP & SONS 925 PENNA. AVE.

TERMS TO SUIT.

O. G. Staples, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Staples, Miss Laura Johnson, Mrs. Johnson, Jules Demonet and Mrs. Demonet, Mr. and Mrs. Ridenour, Mr. and Mrs. Gleseking, Mr. and Mrs. Kline, Dr. Biedler, Dr. A. G. White, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Imogene Tay-lor, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ryan, Miss Junie Fair, Miss Susie Fair, and Miss Nellie McNulty.

MAUD POWELL, VIOLINIST, Will Appear at Washington College of Music Concert Friday.

ment was Col. Staples himself.

At 11 o'clock the dancing stopped for a Washington College of Music concert time, while the mummers, still masked, series at the Columbia Theater next ton, and, strange as it may seem, wit the many musical events of this sea son, which has been one of the busies Mr. F. Carl Smith, the artist, for his occasion. She has all the qualities that clever impersonation of a native of Tunis.

Mr. Smith wore a real Arabian costume, with a fine breadth of style and thrill> thusiasm wherever she plays. Her pro-(Variation on a theme by Corelli.)

>
> La Fleurie

(Aus der Haffner Musik) Allegro-Lento-Valse-Allegro.

Lecture on Northern Alaska. Beginning next Wednesday afternoon a Klondike, by Frank Caldwell, who will give an interesting account of the farthest Northwest, which will be illustrated with, 200 stereopticon photographs. These pictures have been selected from 500 photographs taken by Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell while traveling the vast wilderness of Alaska and Yukon territory, from Sitka Sea, where the two continents almos touch. One of the most interesting feat tures of each lecture will be striking musher," by Eli Smith and his tear of Alaskan dogs and wolves, which ar w in West Virginia, on their long tram om Alaska to Washington. Smith. he "musher," or mail carrier, who car-ied the mail with his wolves, dogs, and led over the trails that follow the Yukon rom the Teslin Lakes to the frozen north of Bering Strait, the longst dog trails in the world. The first lec go, the "Land of the Totem Pole." second with the Klondike, "The Land of Gold," and the third with the "Long Dog Trail" beyond the Klondike. Tickets are now selling at T. Arthur Smith's, in Sanders & Stayman's, 1327 F street.

Give Theater Parties.

Mrs. Towsend entertained a large party honor of her daughter's, Miss Mathilde Townsend's, birthday. Among her guests who occupied the entire suite of boxes on one side of the house, were the Hon. Maude Pauncefote Madame Riano, Miss Cameron, Miss Elkins, Miss Wallach, Miss Sanger, Miss Isabelle May, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Donnell Lee, Hon, Roland Lindsay, of the British Embassy; Prince zu Lynar of the German Embassy: Count Lieut. McCauley, Mr. Hitt, and Mr. Blair. Another box party was entertained by Representative and Mrs. James E. Wat. on, among whose guests were Mr. and Among the fashionable audience were Mrs. Glover, the Misses Sheridan, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Carusi, and Mr. Wants to Adopt Stepchildren.

John J. Tunstall yesterday filed a petiion in the District Supreme Court asking to be permitted to adopt his two step children, Harold J. Monahan, aged eigh een, and Claire S. Monahan, aged fif-The petitioner also desires that the children be made his heirs at law. Their mother, he states, died January 13, 907, and that for ten years the children have lived with him. He also states that it is the desire of the children that the court grant the petition.

Best Because They're Purest

White House BREAD

"The Bread of Quality."

White House ROLLS

"The newest thing in Rolls."

The high standard of purity and quality of these products recommend them to all.

White House Bread Is the best Bread for the few minutes.

est toast and best toast. White House Rolls. If you'd enjoy perfect hot Bread for breakfast warm these rolls in the oven for a home table. Best for sandwiches, and makes the crisp-

Look for the name "White House" on Bread and Rolls.

BOSTON BAKING CO., 1st & B Sts. S. W. In Front of U. S. Capitol

For Your Valentine.

WHETHER you desire the sentimental the humorous, you'll find it a very easy matter to make satisfactory selection from our excellent showing of Valentines and Valentine Novelties. D'Artistically bound Books suitable for Valentines.

Brentano's !!!

Lowering Prices on Furs

HAT no fur values were ever more appreciated is attested by the brisk sell-ing during this February ale. EVERYTHING REDUCED

SAKS FUR CO Furs Exclusively-Cor. 13th and G.

dicinal virtues. We can unhesitat ingly recommend our LUCCA OLIVE OIL for every use because it is our own importation 906 Qt. cause it is our own importation and bottling.

Full qt. bottles, 90c. Full pts., 50c W. Thompson Pharmacy, Frank C. Henry, Prop., 703 15th St.

expertness In Painting and Paperhanging PLITT, Painter, Paperhanger, 1727 7th st. nw. 'Phone N. 4123.

Indoor Games

Every good Indoor Game is here -Card Games of every description, Chess, Checkers, Crokinole, C Burrowes Portable Pool Tables in all sizes.

WALFORD'S PALAY.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

$20.00. Was $45.00.

Pearl Necklaces Restrung -at the homes of our patrons by our expert. Appointments should be made several days in advance.

young daughter of the Minister from Costa Rica, entertained at luncheon yesterday, when her guests were: Mme.

GALT & BRO. Established Over a Century Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers

The Merrymakers will give a Valentine dance at National Rifles Armory to-morPeter Grogan,